

Ms. Tara Lee Munro

February 10, 2015

November 4, 1980 - February 10, 2015

Peacefully at Credit Valley Hospital following an extraordinarily courageous battle with cancer, with her favourite Aunt Caroline at her side. Daughter of Margaret Munro (partner Lorne Rogers) & Gordon Munro and sister to Gordie Munro. Sadly missed by many friends and relatives. Abiding by Tara's request, cremation will take place and a memorial service will be held at a later date. Tara's family would like to thank Dr. R. Myers and Dr. R. Sauls for their attentive care and continuous support. Donations in Tara's memory may be made to the Credit Valley Hospital Foundation.

“ Not sure where to start here.....Is it BCE Place? The Guvernment? The basement apartment at Scarborough Golf Club Road? My first nipple piercing? The late night phone calls at the Bay Wellington desk? Rusty Nails at Mr. Green Jeans? You were a lot of different things to a lot of different people and you touched each and everyone of us in a different and unique way. Through ups and downs and all arounds, you had a smile that was infectious, a laugh that could melt mountains, and will always, always, always be remembered. Funny thing that brought me here....I was listening to some Kelli Skarr, from Moonraker tonight and knew that I hadn't heard from you in a bit. Checked out your facebook page and my heart sank. Sorry to see you go kiddo. Your gonna be missed for sure!

My deepest condolences to the Munro Family.

“ From the first day you found out I would be having your niece Julia I remember seeing your eyes light up.... You were so happy to finally be a aunt and you couldn't wait to meet her.... You were a huge support to me with Julia..... I spoke to you a few weeks ago and told you how much you meant to us. Everything you have done for Julia will never go forgotten. You were an amazing Aunt and Julia loves you so much. It has been very hard for her to accept what has happened and shes been talking about you everyday. You impacted her life so much, and she just adores you. She misses you so much... We love you Aunty Tara and our lives are forever touched by you. Julia has been sleeping with all the teddy's you have gotten her since she was born. She will remember you always. We miss you so deeply, we love you, and we will never forget any of the memories. You were taken from us way to soon, you were amazing, beautiful, so smart and creative. Julia said shes misses you and loves you. xoxoxooxoxoxo May you Rest in Paradise Aunty Tara... We love you always....

Love ... Amanda , Jocelyn and Julia xoxoxo

“ Tara. This one hurts the most. I'm writing this through stinging tears. It has finally sunk in and I have to admit that you're gone! You fought so hard and were and are an inspiration to us all. There is a new benchmark for courage/fight and tenacity and you are it. I can't believe Im never going to get to hear your voice. Im never going to get to laugh at some joke you make, sarcastic of course ;) BUT what I will and do have is great memories of our 13 years of knowing each other. With those memories Tara you'll never really be gone. I am going to keep this short as the most is often said with the fewest words. I love you Tara! You're free now and you are in our hearts and memories and there is no pain there. There is only love....Life....Memories.

Love you! Rest well.

“ My heart goes out to all of you in the Munro, Bauld and Newell families. You all helped raise her and turn her into the most courageous and loving person I've ever met. She had the biggest heart in the world and she loved you all more than anything. She is at peace now and getting to visit Jeannette and Poppa..which will make her happier than ever. RIP Tara. You made the world a better place for every person you came in contact with. xoxo

Thank you Caroline. Hard to type through the tears! I am so happy that she had you with her on Tuesday to help her feel loved and safe. I keep envisioning the laughter on Christmas eve on Barrington Avenue as the family spends 2 hours trying to get through the 12 days of Christmas (honestly...who can remember all the words?!?) That was always Tara's favorite time of year....getting to spend it in laughter with her lovely family and getting to see the joy on her cousin's faces as they opened their gifts.

“ Tara (aka/Butterpants - our little secret), You were the daughter I never had! I still remember being afraid to pick you up when you were born but it wasn't very long before I couldn't get enough of you. You were the little girl who took her "shoe's on's off" and who loved "corn on the bone" and who always had room in her back for desert! (I don't get away with that one around here) Let's not forget the fact that you could have emptied a cow of it's milk at every opportunity, even up until yesterday. You were the one who everyone loved best (although Grandma and Poppa would never admit that to the boys) We were all so very proud of you! You were the stunning young woman who wanted no more than to bring happiness where ever you went. You didn't deserve this! But, you accepted your fate with relentless courage and undenyng strength, all the while worrying about your mum. I don't know how you managed to keep a smile on your face during every hospital visit, but you did. (although, I have to admit it was easy on Christmas day as John jaunted around the hospital in his onezie - your idea to get it!!!)

I was given the gift of sharing your last hour as we sang silly old Scottish children's songs. You passed away peacefully as I held your hand and for that I will always be grateful. I'm sure this was done to spare your mum as we both know it would have been too much for her to bare. I loved you very much and you loved me very much and we both knew it, thank you for telling me as often as you did.

Please please rest in peace, Grandma and Poppa are waiting for you. The tears are streaming down my face and on to my chest as I write this, I will think of you and miss you every single day, you're my inspiration moving forward.

With much love, Aunt Caroline (aka "Ac" - big a, small c)

Margaret, I can only imagine the pain that you are feeling right now, there is nothing worse than losing a child. Please try to take comfort in knowing that you did everything you could for her and that she passed away peacefully. She loved you very much and appreciated all that you did, she told me this many times. I'm here for you whenever you need me.

Your little sis, Caroline xoxoxox

My heart goes out to all of you for your loss. Although I didn't see much of Tara in later years, Margaret, I remember when you phoned me to tell me that you were pregnant, and I remember when she was born and through her childhood. I'll never forget what good care she took of you when you were in the hospital with your gall bladder, she was so worried! I know when it was your turn to take care of her, that you were there for her every step of the way. It's terrible to have to say goodbye to this amazing young woman, but at least her pain and suffering is over. Rest in peace, Tara, you gave it the good fight. Love, Carol

Dear Margaret, I cannot imagine the loss that you are feeling. Tara was loved so much and you were always there to love and support her. Tara left knowing all of the love you and her family had for her and this will be with her forever. Tara will be truly missed, again, I am so sorry for your loss. Love Joanne Lalonde

Dear Caroline, You have been so strong and great support for Margaret & Tara. Tara was blessed to have you in her life & for you to be with her to comfort her. I know that Tara was like a daughter to you & will always be cherished. Love Joanne
