“ I was very fortunate to have had my life brightened by having Teresa as a friend. I worked with "T" at Zellers over 25 years ago. As a young buyer who had been transferred to the head office in Montreal T was one of the first people I met, and with her genuine warmth (and humour) she quickly made me feel welcomed. Not only did she always make sure I had everything I needed for work, she took this young kid under her wing and always had mother-like advise. Many years and many relocations throughout different companies and countries, T never lost contact and always took the time to send a birthday email. T was authentic, caring, and always had a positive and humorous view in any situation. You meet many good people throughout your life but you only meet a few true great friends, and I was fortunate to have T as a friend.

T you will be missed.

“Meghan, your mom was an amazing person and I am so from the bottom of my heart sorry for your loss. When we worked together side by side at HBC she literally made my days brighter. You couldn't ask for a more real, genuine, funny, and humble woman. We would laugh alot and shared our love for reality tv, this was a break from the corporate life. She was my HBC real estate friend and I always knew that I was getting realness and authenticity, a trust, something very rare in the corporate world. When you work closely with someone you get to really know them and I can honestly say she was a lovely, amazing, woman.

You and your father were always a priority for her, she only spoke amazing words for the both of you. Even when you had your first car car and you had a minor fender bender she told me she was a bit stressed but not once did she ever critique you, she only praised you, thats real love, you were her baby.

Teresa you are missed.

“So sorry for your loss. Teresa and I worked together years ago and she was a great friend. More recently while I was fighting my own battle with cancer, I had a chance to talk to Teresa and her wise and encouraging words were invaluable. She will be missed. God Bless to you and family

“ I met Teresa on my first day at Zellers. She befriended me from that day one 31 years ago. We could talk about anything, nothing was too embarrassing or off the table. How excited I was to see the beautiful baby girl Meaghan that was part of two soulmates who loved each other so much. My reality junkie friend who I can call anytime to talk about trash TV. I remember one day when I had a cold at work and she told me to drink tea. I was embarrassed but under my breath told her I never made tea. (yes, I was a loser!) She laughed at me and took me over and showed me how. A little thing, but Everytime I make tea... I have T to thank. My last day of work in Montreal, I managed to say goodbye to many without tears. I opened the door to leave and heard T say loudly... "I love you" Well that was it. She always will be there in my heart ❤️ Miss and love her.
