Teresita Victoria Witchel

Tess had a heart that overflowed with kindness and wisdom. Her gentle spirit touched everyone she met and was such an inspiration to many. She was compassionate, always ready to lend a listening ear and offer words of insight. Her unwavering faith and dedication to her beliefs were truly inspiring.

Being the eldest daughter, she took on the role as a parent, looking after the welfare of her younger siblings, guiding, and protecting them.

She was very much a classy lady, always full of grace and composure. Gatherings with Tess were always fun and festive as she would provide an abundance of delicious dishes that she cooked herself, and she would decorate with such elegance and attention to detail.

In her quiet moments, Tess found solace and strength in the scriptures. Her devotion was evident in every aspect of her life, and she lived each day with grace and humility. The abundance of her journals, where she wrote daily about her reflections, serves as ample evidence of her faith.

Tess's legacy of love and faith will continue to live on in the hearts of those who were blessed enough to know her. She has left an indelible mark on our lives, and we will cherish the memories we have of her forever.

I will lift up my eyes to the hills—where does my help come from? My help comes from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth.

Psalm 121:1-2

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Aunt Tess only recently through my wife, Daphne, Tess’ niece. I will remember her as a witty, fun and overall wise lady who, despite the short time I knew her, will be dearly missed.

“ I'm going to miss Tess deeply. She was kind and always cared about me. Both Don and Tess treated me like family. It's hard to believe that just a few months ago I lost Don, and now Tess is gone too. I will always remember them with gratitude for the love and guidance they gave me throughout the years. It was a privilege to know them.”

“ From poetry to cooking, my Tita Tess never failed to teach me something new. She knew about anything and everything because she lived a full and cultured life. I am so grateful to have heard her wonderful stories of growing up in the Philippines and living in Europe and North America. This must be why she always encouraged me to dream big throughout my school years and into my career. She was my inspiration to never stop learning and to pursue what I want in life. I fondly remember our monthly phone calls and emails to update each other since we resided on different continents. Recently, I finally was able to teach her something in return which was how to use the videocamera on Facebook Messenger. Above all, she embodied elegance and confidence - she had decorum while speaking her mind. I loved dearly and will miss her even more.
