“ *Lori and extended families,
We were saddened to hear the news of Terry's passing. A wonderful soulmate to you, a proud papa to all of his grandchildren, a devoted Son, a special brother to his siblings, a loving Uncle, and an amazing Father and Step Father, and a dear friend to many. He was a very lucky man, to have such a wonderful big family that was by his side for many years, as he took this journey of the unexpected. Terry was a fighter, and always had that shy smile, and loved every minute of his life. His love of fishing, and cottage country, with his family, is what he loved best. You would always see several pictures of Terry with one, or all of his grandchildren. He was like a kid at heart. Very talented when it came to wood working as well. I was fortunate to see Terry in the hospital, a week before he passed. He had that shy smile still, and I was able to tell him what he meant to his step children, and to all of us. He was one of a kind, and treated them all the same, and they were all one happy family. He was definitely taken to soon, but obviously God needed him and didn't want him to suffer any longer. He had a tear in his eye, as he was looking out the hospital window. He was tired, and could no longer carry on. Lori, you were blessed to have shared this special time with such a wonderful person, and that he was not afraid to look after you, and your family. It is like the chain is broken, and it will soon close, in time, when the pain heals. We hope that God can give, you and your family the strength to carry on, like he would want you to. Love you, and thinking of you, and we are always here for you !xo*

“ A few summers ago I took a road trip out of the magic forest where I live to visit family and friends, one of my stops was to the Roy home as I am a long time friend of Lori's our friendship goes back to grade 9 (1972). From the moment the front door opened and after Sam was finished welcoming me into the house, I met Terry, and could feel the Love he and Lori shared. The three of us spent the afternoon, evening and the next morning laughing, telling funny stories about our lives, eating chinese, drinking wine. The next morning we were treated to a delicious omelette cooked by the master chef himself. Lori you are blessed to have Terry as your soul mate, your husband and mostly your best friend. I will treasure the memories of that weekend forever. Men like Terry are rare. ox
