

Mr. Terrence Paul Olexy

August 7, 2014

Feb.23, 1951-Aug.7, 2014

Wonderful Father to Anjelica, Ty-Sunn, and Marley.

Big Brother to Randy, Diane, and good friend Rick L.

Proud Uncle to Nick, Alexandra, and Desire.

Dear to all extended family and friends, new, long time, and long-long time.

He truly loved and enjoyed all of you and the experiences you shared.

Thanks to all for their thoughts, prayers, words, and time.

Much gratitude to our family for the support and love you showed us all, and for creating a ring of strength around our Father's bed.

Many of us are still in shock and other stages of grief. It was Terry's wish that we all mourn, celebrate, and remember him in our own ways.

Again, thank you all for everything. It will be so hard to live in this world without the man who was always there. We love you Terry .XOXOXO

“ He was always so friendly to me even though we only knew each other in passing. He was a good neighbour with a lovely smile and kindness in his eyes. His vibe and demeanour were down to earth and but now he soars in the stars. I will miss his presence around the neighbourhood. So sorry for your loss. I believe he is still with you, heart and soul.

“ So sorry to hear about Terry. We were co-workers at Canada Life but also had a good friendship and some interesting chats. I remember him telling me he had a bow and arrow when he was younger and used to go into the fields in Oakville, now highly built up of course. I always thought it was cool to know a type of Robin Hood. I, too, echo Pat and Ted's sentiments. Terry always looked at you during a conversation and you could see that he was genuinely interested in what you were saying. My condolences to your family during this sad and difficult time.

Im so glad to hear from another Canada Lifer! He continued his archery, including making his own arrows. You did know the urban Robin Hood, and he gave to the poor regularly, me!xoxox “ We're so very sorry about the loss of Terry. He was one of the few men who actually listened when you talked to him and actually looked at you - he was so easy to be with. He played guitar with our son, Paul, and our world will be a little less friendlier a place with him gone. Our deepest prayers are with his family.

“ A lot of people have been asking when Terry's memorial service is. At this point, the family is still in major shock and also feeling a financial strain. We are hoping to fundraise some money so that we can give Terry the memorial service that he so deserves. The family would also like to donate some money towards Cancer Research.

Please support and share the families fundraising campaign,

“ I just want to say how incredible lucky I felt about being friends with Terry. When ever we had a chance to talk after I started working with him it seemed we liked a lot of the same things. From sci-fi to science to history and everything in between we could talk for hours without realizing it. I'm going to miss are conversations and I am really going to miss him.

“ My name is Louie Le Coche, or better known as Louie the drummer. I met Terry in the late 70's, in Oakville jamming in what was then literally a chicken coop. I was always in amazement of his extraordinary guitar skills and his wonderful personality with such a lovable soul. I'm going to miss Terry for the rest of my life, and will always keep in memory alive forever!!

Love you Brother Terry,

Louie

“ HELP!

Dear Everyone, thank you for taking time to add to this site. I need all of your HELP! Terry dunked his knapsack while canoeing a while back and had not put much of his contact info for others back together. Please email a link to this site or direct anyone to my email- nickdemus77@hotmail.com - that knew my Dad of knows a friend of my Dads. I am sad that there are people who may feel left out. It is Not intentional.

Also, please know that we want and feel Terry deserves a memorial. On many occasions in life and during his illness i approached him on the subject and never came away with anything more definitive than what i expressed in his obituary. This as well as shock and lack of resources has left me feeling badly for the lack of comfort and closure this kind of gathering would provide. I hope, with time, we can have a service of some kind that will bring us all together. Until then, take my Dad's "advice" and remember him in your own way and remember him to others. Love to you all.XOXO

“ Though I didn't know Terry very well at all. He is one of those few really friendly faces in the neighbourhood that would give me an infectious smile and a hello. We had small chats and I enjoyed them a lot. I'm very saddened to hear of his passing. My sympathies go out to his entire family and friends. I'll light a candle and hope it will help you find your way.

“ *Terry was the initiator each year to get things rolling for our annual gathering and looked forward to his email every spring to get the ball rolling. We are going to miss him terribly, his interesting conversations and comments and stories. We miss him so much already but know that he'll be there with us each year and we'll continue to carry on the tradition that he was such a huge part of. To the Olexy and Watson clan we feel your pain but also know that he was so very proud of his family and loved you very much.
