“ I knew Tim in Kuwait in the late 60s and 70s. He was such a twinkly, fun friend and I have treasured photos of him with Colin, Pilar and me. Our family was very close to Tim, Muriel and Ken. We kept in touch over the years but lately lost touch. I didn't know he had died and would like to send my heartfelt condolences to his family and friends. If there is a way, I would love to hear more about his life in Canada. My thoughts are with you all.

“ I am Christine Cudmore-Kear and Tim was my beloved husband and great friend for many years. It was a shock to learn of his untimely death but hopefully Tim has finally experienced some peace and serenity. I miss him dearly and daily and no one I've ever met had the "twinkle" in the eye that Tim did. He was funny, irreverent, spiritual [our Welsh Druid, as his Canadian family called him] ; a small ,man with a huge heart and soul. We all fondly remember him reciting Dylan Thomas to us, playing with his beloved nieces and nephew; never forgetting a birthday and forever aware of the preciousness of the small but necessary kindnesses in life. I remember meeting him in a bar in Greece and falling in love with him on our enchanted island_ that was a magic time for both of us. Tim, I hope in Heaven there's a Rose and Crown where you, Muriel and Ken are imbibing gin and tonics and refilling my glass of red. You are forever in my heart and you live on in my memories. I hope that you are aware of how much you are loved and how much you are missed.

Tim was a wonderful uncle to my children, Leah and Sean. I hope the two Tim's are together somewhere telling tales and laughing.
