“ Uncle Timmy,

I will always remember the goodness in your heart and the kindness that you showed me. I wish things could have been different for you and I wish you peace now. You are loved and will always be remembered.

Love,

Danielle

“ Sorry Uncle Timmy for taking my time to write... The last few weeks have been difficult for us.

This is for all who are and for those who deal with loved ones who are struggling with mental illness.... DON'T QUIT (I hold this poem close to my heart and in my wallet...thank you for challenge, awareness and memories never forgotten.)

*When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
When the road you are trudging seems all up hill,
When the funds are low, and the debts are high,
And you want to smile, but you have to sigh,
When care care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must, BUT DO NOT QUIT!*

*Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
As many a failure turns about,
When you might have won had you stuck it out,
Don't give up though the pace seems slow,
You may succeed with another blow.*

*Success is failure turned inside out,
THE SILVER TINT OF THE CLOUDS OF DOUBT,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far,
So stick to the fight when you are the hardest hit,
It's when things seem worse that you MUST NOT QUIT.*

I am fortunate to say that I came from the most loving family imaginable.. Let us grow, educate and support each other as we have been doing.

One foot in front of the other...baby steps but forward motion.

I love you Uncle Timmy. Rest and be at peace. XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX

“ Timmy,
You were loved.....even though you made it very difficult at times for your family to show that love.
You will not be forgotten. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers. We wish you everlasting peace on your journey.
Love Marie
