Growing up I always thought my cousin's Vic and George were the Everly Brothers. Vic was always there for me and the family. He always had a smile and was so warm loving and affectionate to everyone who knew him. He will truly be missed but never ever forgotten. Love you cuz ❤️

We were kids who grew up in a time when you could walk around the lake, swim and sunbath in the beach, hang with numerous other kids and do no harm to ourselves or anyone else. We knew everyone within a mile radius. We walked, we danced we loved life. We grew up to be happy, fun loving and productive people. Vic was one of the good ones. Our lives led us in different directions but I still considered Vic and Willy to be friends. Rest in peace Vic! Job well done!
