“ Alven, Alyssa, and family Very sad to hear of the passing of Vicki. We send our deepest condolences to you. We lived on the same street in Brantford. We would have nice chats when she would take a break from her regular walks in the neighbourhood. She was a beautiful person inside and outside. We just heard the sad news yesterday. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Victoria Mae Simmons Swick, born October 22nd 1964, was a beautiful baby girl, who grew into an exceptional woman that I am blessed to call my daughter. She was also the daughter of William Simmons Jr and Stepdaughter of John Klassen.
Loved and missed by her siblings Beth, Mechelle ,Andrew, and Ryan and long-time friend of Sherri Schira.
Vicki’s accomplishments were many and diverse. Her passions were her husband Alven , daughter Alyssa and her pets. She was always a vessel of love. Beautiful to look at and always caring for others, giving with her heart and soul.
Vicki succeeded at everything she tried. She was a vet technician, professional model and successful business woman. She was brilliant and beautiful.
Vicki will forever be loved and remembered by all who knew her.
Rest now my Darling

“ Where do i begin with my amazing mom. Shes been and always will be a amazing mother. She told me no matter what i will always love you threw a text one day and that made my day. Her last words to me were i love you too and thats the best thing i could ever wish for. My mom was always there for me and i was always there for her. Although we had are disagreements we still loved each other. I will always love you mommy.

Love,
Lyss ♡

“ Our family met Vicki when she lived in Brantford. Vicki started out grooming our dog Luvy. Then Luvy got sick and we got two more dogs but Luvy lived on. Then we had 3 dogs and Vick brought them all into her home with Alven and wee Alyssa and cared for them when we were on vacations. When I would pick them up they had been bathed and groomed and had their little bandanas on. Vicki always said that she wanted them clean when they went home. When Vicki bred her pups my mother in law and a good friend each bought one of Vicki's pups. She only let the best people adopt her pups. Vicki was the best. Her bravery and strength throughout her illness and treatment gave me strength and taught me lessons. I recently was able to walk through the holy door of mercy at the Vatican and I said a special prayer for Vicki. I know she was not afraid of dying because she is and always will be an angel. She has a higher calling and I know she will walk with Alven and Alyssa all the days of their lives. Peace be with you.

“ I have been privileged and blessed with 30 years of wonderful memories of my wife Vicki. An amazing partner, mother, friend and soul mate.

Although her passing was such that allowed for preparation, I'm left with a cavernous, hollow void. It will be my loving memories of her caring nature, infectious laugh and unsurpassed common sense that will see me and our daughter through. These memories calm the pain.

The strength Vicki exhibited over her life during adversity will guide me. I see those traits in our daughter and in Vicki's family. Such a precious gift she has left us all.

I love you forever!
