“ William, you will be sorely missed. You have been such a faithful, caring friend. I will miss your company at Starbuck, at the Church and at lunch at Ronsy, your phone calls. You were so organized that you prepared everything before leaving us. But then we still hoped for a miracle- which was not to be. We will all remember you for your goodness, your graciousnes and your gentle ways. William I'll keep you in my prayers always- that will be the only gift I can give you now.
