“ So sorry to hear of your sudden loss Will and Andrew. In my eyes growing up your dad was such a legend and a dear friend to my father. I know they had many adventures together and they will meet up top to have many more. Hope they don't get in too much trouble up there :-)

Wishing you well and warmest condolences from the Kinn Family.

“ Dear Wilkinson family - Very sorry to hear of Bill's passing. We hadn't crossed paths for many years but I will always fondly remember times spent together during those wonderful Shanty Bay summers aboard "Barnicle Bill", the "White Elephant", the purple sidewinder, a yellow Pontiac convertible or anything else that moved! My sympathy goes to you all.

“ We're saddened our friend Bill passed away. Time always passed happily with Bill, he liked boats, liked whiskey, I liked him. We are gonna miss you BillyGoat.

“ Bill, or Uncle Bill as I often called him, was always a true friend and an asset to the NYC for his involvement when and where he could be and I was only too happy - as Dock Committee Chair - to assign him Slip 119 which is where he wanted to be - up close and personal to all the action of the main dock and the people walking by. His boat was always full of happy shiny people all having a good time - laughing, singing, playing the guitar, and so much more. He added life to the club and so did his boat. He always kept his boat in immaculate condition and was very proud of it even having it painted top and bottom. He labored for hours on the wood as well and did not cut corners in the process. He always had something positive to say and added life to every situation. I never once saw him glum. His smile was infectious and the sparkle in his eyes could cheer the most disheartened soul. Although he is no longer with us in the physical sense he is in the spiritual and metaphorical sense and always will be. His upbeat attitude and smiling face will reverberate throughout the club for a long time to come. Bill will surely be missed and if there is a meaning to life - and I truly think that there is - then I will look forward to tipping a pint or two again with him in the not-to-distant future. Cheers Bill and thanks for adding your lifescape to mine! Don

“ Very sad news. I always enjoyed speaking with Bill and will fondly remember walking by the dock at National seeing him enjoy his boat. Please accept my deepest condolences.

Regards,

Peter
