

Ms. Yvonne Alice Wilson

January 7, 2014

Peacefully at Bridgepoint Health on Tuesday, January 7, 2014. Private Arrangements.

Tribute Wall

SH

“ It was a chance meeting that brought Yvonne into my life. We both sought and found comfort and friendship during a very difficult time in our lives. I will cherish those moments and her friendship and care. I am sad beyond words, not to have been there when she passed, to hold her hand and let her know she is not alone, that she is cherished, and will be greatly missed. A strong, intelligent, independent, beautiful woman that was my honour to know. May you rest in peace. With all my Love, Shoshie

SHOSHIE - January 14, 2014 at 05:19 PM

SV

YVONNE was a chameleon who could be so very fascinating and charming to those who knew her superficially. Yet to those who had known and loved her all of her life, she was a bitter, angry individual, who was haunted with unjustifiable feelings of injustice and persecution. To have been gifted with such intelligence and beauty, and to have lived with such an angry, disagreeable disposition is very sad indeed. From, her long lost family who did try to reach out many many times.

S. Vennes - February 10, 2014 at 06:05 AM